Fall 17 English Course

Catalogue

Founded in 1974, PSB Paris School of Business (formerly ESG MS) is a European elitist Grande Ecole management school that combines academic excellence, international awareness and professional experiences.

A member of the Conference of Grande Écoles, EFMD and AACSB, the institution offers several programs: Undergraduate (International BBA), Graduate (Grande École program), and post-Graduate (MSc, MA, MBA, Executive DBA), Exchange & Study Abroad Program as well as Short Programs (Winter/Summer).

Cited as one of the top post-baccalaureate schools in France, its Grande École Program offers a 5-year course leading to an official Master level degree which is also internationally accredited by AMBA as of October 2014.

International students enrolled in the PSB Exchange can select English taught courses from two different programs:

- PSB PGE (Grande Ecole Program)
- PSB IP (International Program)

Students can select between 5 to 30 ECTS per semester within one single track.

Allocation to track and courses will be done based on student completion of prerequisites & availabilities.

Please refer to the fall 17 French Course Catalogue should you wish to study in French.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This module is composed of 2 courses:

-Organizational Behavior. This course takes students through key elements of group and individual behavior inside organizations. It explores various angles derived from social sciences to explain management/employee reactions and relations. The course is half lecture half experiential and extensively describes and explains workplace psychology and sociology within a tight 15 hour time frame.

-This course is comprehensive introduction to the human resources function and related elements and activities. The course outlines the roles and functions of members of the human resources department, as well as educating others outside human resources, in how their roles include human resources-related activities. The student will learn about the evolution in human resources management, as we know it today. Emphasis is placed on the modern day importance of HRM and the new "corporate view" of the function. Additionally, the student will be exposed to the view of HRM from the perception of both management and subordinate employees. The importance of maintaining fair and equitable compensation and benefit programs will be discussed. The student will be exposed to practical situations and problem solving regarding areas of employee counseling, discipline and termination. Equal Employment Opportunity will be discussed in order for the student to understand its needs, importance and the legal issues surrounding it. Other critical areas of training and development, staffing and strategy will also be explored.

COURSE OBJECTIVES & EXPECTED LEARNING OUTCOMES:

The Organizational Behavior course aims to give students a general understanding of HRM from a non-specialist perspective. They will understand the role and function of HR in the organization and learn how to integrate it in their future roles as manager. They will master the various components of recruitment, compensation and benefits, career development etc. In The OB course their interpersonal and leadership skills will be addressed.

The Human Resources & Management course is designed for students seeking to enhance their effectiveness for optimizing the human resource potential of their organization in order to achieve Business and strategic objectives.

In this course, students will learn the basic concepts and frameworks of human resource management (HRM), and understand the role that HRM has to play in effective business administration. This course will also improve students' ability to think about how HRM should be used as a tool to execute strategies. More specifically, students will analyze elements such as the environment surrounding each company and their vision, values and strategies. Then, students will discuss how these elements relate to the various parts of HRM, such as HR policy, organizational structure, HR systems (recruitment, placement, evaluation, compensation and development) and organizational culture. Students will also look at numerous problems of HRM and their causes, and what action plans should be implemented in order to solve these problems. In brief, the objectives of the course will be:

- ☐ To teach relevant, practical and applicable human resource management skills to equip the student with the foundation competencies for working as HR practitioners in business.
- ☐ To improve the student's self-confidence to be able to analyze and decide upon HR issues and problems.
- ☐ To introduce contemporary theory and practice in modern human resource management and the range of tools and methods available to address HR challenges and problems.
- ☐ Apply critical thinking and problem solving skills to the analysis and resolution of human resource problems as presented in case studies.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Business Law addresses statutes and regulations affecting businesses, families, and individuals in their related roles. Knowledge of business law is useful for all students because all students eventually assume roles as citizens, workers, and consumers in their communities and in society at large. As laws emanate from different governmental and judicial entities, students must have a basic understanding of law and the foundation of the legal system to be successful in any area of business as well as their personal lives.

Business Law is a course that is designed to give students the knowledge they need regarding a basis of law while preparing students to make ethical, legally-minded professional decisions currently and in the future. This course shows students the impact of various laws and regulations on the business world and its companies. Students are also introduced to the implications of varying legal constraints in different environments. The course does not aim to teach legal specifics but provides a backdrop for the basic understanding of business and the law.

COURSE OBJECTIVES & EXPECTED LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Course Objectives:

- . 1) Learn to understand basic legal terminology and concepts.
- . 2) Learn how to evaluate issues of legal significance in business transactions.
- . 3) Apply legal reasoning to situations and form legal conclusions.
- . 4) Compare and apply various legal theories/interpretations to factual situations.
- . 5) Learn how to issue spot, weigh, and analyze risks, and gain a sense of comfort and familiarity with the legal system
